(MOSCOW, RUSSIAN FEDERATION)

Agreement

concerning the establishment of a UNESCO Chair on Comparative Studies in Quality of Higher Education at the Institute for Quality in Higher Education of the National University of Science and Technology ("MISIS"), Moscow, Russian Federation

The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (hereinafter referred to as "UNESCO"), 7 Place de Fontenoy, 75352 Paris 07 SP, France, represented by its Director-General, Ms Irina Bokova,

and

The National University of Science and Technology (hereinafter referred to as "the University"), Leninskiy prospect 4, Moscow 119049, Russian Federation represented by its Rector, Ms Alevtina A. Chernikova.

Considering that one of the essential factors favouring development in UNESCO's fields of competence is the exchange of experience and knowledge between universities and other higher education institutions;

Convinced that joint work by university teachers, researchers and administrators from regions all over the world will provide important benefits for the entire academic community;

Bearing in mind UNESCO's mission and objectives as set forth in its Constitution, and its role in promoting international inter-university cooperation;

Taking into account the experience of the UNESCO/UNITWIN Chairs Programme as a stimulus for academic mobility and the rapid transfer of knowledge through twinning, networking and other linking arrangements;

Have agreed as follows:

Article 1 The University shall, in cooperation with UNESCO, establish a UNESCO Chair on Comparative Studies in Quality of Higher Education (hereinafter referred to as "the Chair") at the National University of Science and Technology, its institute for Quality in Higher Education.

Article 2 The purpose of the Chair shall be to promote an integrated system of research, training, information and documentation on comparative studies in quality of higher education. It will facilitate collaboration between high-level, internationally-recognized researchers and teaching staff of the University and other institutions in the Russian Federation, as well as in the Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS), and in other regions of the world.

The specific objectives of this Chair are to:

- conduct, jointly with partners, research on methodologies and practices to assess quality in higher education and to disseminate results widely;
- contribute to the development of effective internal quality assurance mechanisms and standards in higher education, using other countries' experience in the Russian context;

- set up and sustain a platform for exchange on trends and good practices in Quality in Higher Education;
- create professional development programmes based on the results of comparative studies on higher education quality and to provide training;
- promote cooperation in the field of quality assurance in higher education at the regional and global levels; and,
- cooperate closely with UNESCO on relevant programmes and activities, as well as with other relevant UNESCO Chairs.

Article 3 The University, in consultation with UNESCO, shall appoint the Chairholder, who will be selected in accordance with the procedures described in the UNESCO's "Guidelines and Procedures for the UNESCO/UNITWIN Chairs Programme".

Article 4 The Chair shall consist of the Chairholder and the necessary teaching personnel, researchers and students required to carry out the specific training, research and outreach activities of the Chair.

Article 5 The University shall sign a contract with the Chairholder for a fixed period to be determined by the University, giving the Chairholder the same rights and obligations as those of other scholars of the same category at the University. The contract also shall define the Chairholder's salary and benefits, travel expenses, installation grant, housing and medical insurance.

Article 6 The University shall grant the Chairholder the facilities necessary to accomplish his/her academic research and training activities, i.e. the opportunity to organize and promote an integrated system of research, training, information and documentation, and to disseminate the results of research in the field of engineering education.

Article 7 The University shall submit to UNESCO a mid-term progress report and a final report on the activities carried out by the Chair and on the financial resources of the Chair. The reports should comply with the UNESCO template. They will be reviewed by UNESCO and will be published on the UNITWIN portal.

Article 8 The University shall arrange for the Chair to participate in UNESCO programmes and activities with a view to strengthening international academic cooperation. Wherever possible, the University shall arrange for the Chair to engage in the exchange of professors, researchers and students with other universities within the framework of the UNITWIN Programme.

Article 9 Within that framework, the University shall endeavour to associate the Chair with the activities of other Chairs and inter-university networks in the different regions of the world.

Article 10 Subject to the terms of this Agreement, the University shall assume all expenses linked to the implementation of activities undertaken by the Chair.

Article 11 In order to demonstrate its link with UNESCO, the UNESCO Chair is invited to use the composed UNESCO/UNITWIN logo that includes the UNESCO official logo and the UNITWIN logo to the right of the former, under the following conditions:

- The conditions for the use of the logo will be determined by UNESCO and cannot be modified without the prior agreement of the latter; UNESCO shall provide the Chair with a high definition electronic format of the composed logo in compliance with the agreed specifications;
- The logo must be cautiously used with a view to avoiding misinterpretation by the general public, notably concerning the respective status of the Chair, the University and UNESCO, as specified under the provisions of Article 12 of the Agreement; the composed UNESCO/UNITWIN logo shall not, under any circumstances, be used for any commercial purposes, either by the Chair or by the University;
- All promotional and information materials published by the Chair or the University, bearing the composed UNESCO/UNITWIN logo (example: pamphlets and other electronic documents) should bear the disclaimer: The authors are responsible for the choice and presentation of views contained in this ...and for opinions expressed therein, which are not necessarily those of UNESCO and do not commit the Organization; and,
- The University will assume full responsibility for any legal consequences stemming from this use.

Article 12 Neither the University nor any member of its staff employed for the implementation of the activities linked to the Chair shall be considered an agent, representative or member of UNESCO's staff, nor shall they enjoy any benefit, immunity, remuneration or reimbursement if not clearly foreseen in this Agreement; moreover, they shall not be authorized to present themselves as being part of UNESCO, or make statements on UNESCO's behalf, or commit UNESCO to any expense of any nature or to any other obligation.

Article 13 The University shall be entirely responsible for taking any measures it deems necessary to insure itself against loss, injury or damage incurred during the implementation of these activities.

Article 14 The present Agreement shall enter into force for a period of 4 (four) years on the date of both signatures having been appended. It may be cancelled by either Party subject to 60 (sixty) days' written notice to the other Party. This Agreement replaces and supersedes any previous Agreements signed by UNESCO concerning this Chair.

Article 15 The University shall request the renewal of the present Agreement before its expiry date. Any renewal of the present Agreement shall be effected by an exchange of letters between the Parties, on condition that the Chair meets its specific objectives as laid out in Article 2, and provides detailed information on activities and budget secured for the period of renewal.

Article 16 UNESCO may decide to not renew the present Agreement, or to close the Chair if the latter fails to submit timely progress reports on its activities; the reports are negatively evaluated; or the Chair's activities do not correspond to UNESCO's strategic priorities.

Article 17 In the event of a dispute, the Parties shall make a good faith effort to settle it amicably. If an amicable settlement cannot be reached, any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall be settled by a sole arbitrator appointed by mutual agreement or, failing this, by the President of the International Court of Justice at the request of either Party.

In witness whereof, the undersigned, duly authorized to that effect, have signed two copies of the present Agreement in the English language, the two copies being equally authoritative.
